General Comment

The proposed Document ID EBSA-2010-0018-0002 is not only unsustainable and unjustifiable, but cruel. The government will have complete control over a citizen's life. The freedom to choose and live and be as we citizens see fit will be replaced with what a government paid employee decides for us. This is completely contrary to every basic foundational belief our country was founded on. It is a sad day in America when we surrender one more freedom(s) in leiu of 'free healthcare'. So many people gave their lives for us to have freedom that the rest of the world would gladly risk their lives to attain to have our generations throw it all away as if their lives didn't matter at all. All in the name of entitlements and 'free' healthcare.
